

COLUMBIA ASTRONOMY OUTREACH PRESENTS:

STARGAZING, FILM & LECTURE SERIES

Transformers: Dark of the Moon

Friday, June 29th, 7:00PM
Pupin Hall, Columbia University

The Autobots and Decepticons become involved in a perilous space race between the United States and Russia to reach a hidden Cybertronian spacecraft on the moon and learn its secrets.

Films are introduced, shown, and later discussed by scientists, separating science fact from fiction.

Lectures are 30 minutes and at a public level. No reservations are needed.

Films and lectures are followed by guided stargazing with telescopes (weather permitting).

All events are free, open to all members of the public, and held at Columbia University.
